2. INSTRUCTIONS

The 2017 Oratorical Contest Topic: The three domains of the Key Club experience are Heart to Serve, Call to Lead and Courage to Engage. How do these domains shape the membership experience for a Key Clubber?

- The Oratorical Contest shall provide recognition to Key Club members for excellence in public speaking.
The Oratorical contest is an international contest. Eligible orators must first be submitted to the Florida District for judging.
The first place orator from the Florida District Education and Leadership Conference (DCON) will be eligible to compete in the International Oratorical Contest.
The subject matter of the oration and the presentation must be original and completely developed by the orator.
Each orator will be allowed a maximum of five minutes for his/her presentation. Exceeding the time limit may result in a penalty.
Each orator must be an official member in good standing with Key Club International.
Judging and awarding points will be based on the below criteria.
Winning orations will become the property of Key Club International.
Key Club International reserves the right to publish winning orations on KeyTV or in the Key Club magazine, providing appropriate credit to the orator.
The decision of the judges is final and no changes will take place after the results have been certified.
Contest and award criteria can be found in the Key Club Guidebook, www.keyclub.org.

3. SCORING

Table with 2 columns: JUDGING CRITERIA and ASSIGNED POINTS. Rows include SPEECH - 50 Points (Clarity of message, Depths, Originality, Structure) and DELIVERY - 50 Points (Presence, Voice, Ease of presentation, Attention of audience), with a total SUM of 100.

4. SIGNATURES

NOTE: The Awards Committee has the right to verify that the intended signatories have signed this entry form, and has reviewed the oration criteria.

We certify that the participant listed above is an active member in good standing of this Key Club and that the oration meets the criteria.
