

Social Media Do's and Don'ts

As most teenagers know, social media has started to become a dynamic part of our society. From acting as a news outlet to goofy viral videos to the overwhelming amount of memes, social media has become part of our daily lives. But a serious issue with social media is that once something is on the internet, it is there forever and sometimes, there are things that we wish we could take back. How do we keep our own social media accounts clean? Here are some tips and tricks to making sure you are portraying your best self through social media!

Do's Don'ts

- Promote yourself and your club (ex. Talk about accomplishments, service projects, etc.)
- Interact with others because it helps you build relationships
- Model good behavior (ex. No drugs or alcohol)
- Have Positivity!
- Use proper grammar
- Share your Key Club experiences
- Spend more time talking to people face-to-face than you do on social media
- Be cautious of who you pick to be your friends/followers
- Post inappropriate photos/comments
- Friend strangers on Facebook
- Make social media your #1 priority
- Cyberbully (it's mean and you can be charged for it in a criminal court)
- Promote bad behavior
- Post about personal views (ex. Politics, controversial issues)
- Halt your productivity because you want to check your social media
- Respond to negativity
- Take away from someone else's achievements in their comment section
- Make your account open to everyone
