Summarize any other activities (service projects, icebreakers, etc.: "Rain" Icebreaker: Ms.

Kerri and her daughter lead an icebreaker that was perfect for the size of our group (~130).

This icebreaker emulated the sound of rain at its different intensities while encouraging every attendee to participate.

What worked or went well?: The Weiss School went above and beyond in catering to our needs: registration tables, free printing, signage, extra chairs, sound system, maps, rooms, projectors and screens, etc. The people at the school were amazing, from the director to the building superintendent, everyone was ready to help with anything. We are very lucky that their Director of Finance, Ms. Maribeth Lenz, is an active Kiwanian. Ushers from Suncoast High School were brought in to help candidates navigate the halls of the school. One of these ushers actually attended The Weiss School as a student, so she knew the place like the back of her hand. The other usher, took advantage of our sound system, and our access to Apple Music (yet another benefit of working with The Weiss School) and created a playlist that was synchronized with our schedule, without even being asked to. Thank you Zach Speaks.

What would you do differently?: Nine candidates requested to attend, but only 6 attended. Our contingency plans had trouble accounting for such a large amount of extra time. We extended lunch which allotted more time towards interdivisional networking over pizza. There should be a plan in place regarding what to do if several of the candidates are no-shows.
